What do we do?

- Provide a place for LGBT workers and allies to come together.
- Educate and advocate for equality in the workplace.
- Educate LGBT women and men about their rights as workers, as well as about labor unions and the principles of trade union solidarity.
- Encourage unions in their public defense of the civil and human rights of LGBT people
- Increase union presence at LGBT actions, press conferences, rally platforms and events
- Increase visibility of LGBT members at all union functions.
- Build alliances with other civil rights and allied organizations.
- Promote political education programs among LGBT workers.

How can I join?
